BOISE JUNIOR COLLEGE

BOISE, IDAHO

To make an easy job seem difficult, just keep putting off doing it.

Health Center Available To Students

BJC provides health service for students in attendance. The Health Center is located on the west end of the campus between Campus school and the Thunderbird motel.

The medical advice of the college physician, Dr. Bruce Budge, is available one hour daily, from 8:30 to 9:30, at the Health Center, without charge to students. Between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 12:00 noon, a nurse will be on duty. The student may receive, as well as medical advice, treatment of any minor ailment or injury requiring bandaging and medication, on the order of Dr. Budge.

Polio and flu shots are given in the morning, daily, at no cost. Every Tuesday afternoon from 3:00 to 4:30 all types of immunizations are given. No appointment is necessary and there is no charge.

The college does not assume responsibility for the complete medical care of all students at all times. When specialists, consultants and special nurses or hospitalization are required, costs for such services are met by the students. All medical services and supplies in case of chronic or prolonged illness, or accidents, beyond ordinary first aid emergency treatment, are at the expense of the student and he is free to choose his physician on a private basis. Responsibility for providing any special care required by a physically handicapped student rests with his parent or guardian.

Freshmen Hold '61-'62 Elections; Carter President

After a hectic week of campaigns, the freshman class elected their officers for the year 1961-62. Chosen were Bill Carter, president; Rob Bohart, vice-president; Pam Harp, secretary-treasurer, and three representatives, Jack Corta, Olga Blair and Dick Maule.

Other candidates were Mike Maywheer, Tobe Thompson, Travis Updyke, Tim Bosworth, Stanley Cope and Bill Jolley.

Wolfe New Assistant Dean of Faculty

Mr. James Wolfe, instructor of communications, human relations and industrial psychology in the vocational education department last year, has been appointed assistant dean of faculty for the current school year.

He was born in South Bend, Indiana, attended South Bend schools through high school and received his B.S. in general business and M.B.A. in management at Indiana University in 1955-56.

Mr. Wolfe came to BJC in August, 1960, from four years in production management at B. F. Goodrich Tire Company in Akron, Ohio. During the 1960-61 school year he conducted several "Techniques of Supervising People," conferences for local hospitals, and was area coordinator of distributive education programs. This summer he attended a three-week workshop at the University of California on junior college administration.

His duties as assistant dean of faculty include directing evening and adult education, and also the summer program. This is in addition to teaching six hours a week in the vocational education department. Mr. Wolfe is a member of five faculty committees and has been appointed chairman for BJC's 1961-62 United Fund Drive.

This busy faculty member, a one-time first sergeant in the Strategic Air Command, lists golf, fishing and bowling his outside interests. He is married and has one son. His wife is currently a R.N. at the Veterans' hospital here in Boise.

Mr. Wolfe said "Being a member of the BJC staff has been a most wonderful experience for me, and I hope to stay and watch the school grow and progress. I expect great things from the school and the students that make it such a dynamic institution."

David Streetman, baritone, is holding a faculty recital, at 8:15 p.m., in the Music Auditorium. There will be no admission charge.

formed diplomats said last that the U.S. has provisionally agreed to a Soviet demand the 11-nation Security Council rather than the General Assembly initiate action to name a temporary secretary-general.

U.S., Russia, Britain, France Nationalist China has veto in the council.

U.S. had previously held out having the 100-nation General Assembly alone choose an interim successor to the late Dag Hammarskjöld.

NAM TERRORIZED

State Department said last Communist guerilla attacks at South Viet Nam have turned into a real war and are an average of 1500 South Vietnamese a month. The Red were termed as "Communist terrorism on terror as a method of warfare," the department

South Viet Nam President Ngo Dinh Diem had stated earlier that country's fight against Communism was no guerilla war but a struggle against an international-controlled enemy seeking a victory in Southeast Asia.

BLAMED

J. W. Fulbright, chairman of Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said last week that the crisis was partially to blame for the crisis. He said the "mistakes" were made in 1944 and when the U.S., Russia and China were negotiating the postwar Berlin occupation. He further stated it was not just the fault of the Russians.

FLYING SAUCER?

An airborne pilot and seven other people last week sighted a gray, disc-shaped object hovering over Utah lake, near Salt Lake City. One of the observers on the ground watched the object for about 10 minutes through field glasses.

REMOVAL OF INCOMPLETES

An incomplete must be removed within the first half of the semester after the student returns to college. If the work is not made up by this time, the incomplete automatically becomes a failure unless special extension of time is granted by the faculty. The final date for removal of incompletes this semester is November 17, 1961.

The pilot estimated he flew within three miles of it, and claims that it was not an airplane.

RESTAURANT SUED

A Pittsburgh woman was awarded $375,000 by a jury last Wednesday for throat damage she claimed was caused by a restaurant which allegedly served cleaning fluid in her coffee.

(This news is not offered to imply any resemblance between the bad cup of coffee and our Student Union coffee—merely a "stimulating coincidence, that's all.")

United Fund Drive At BJC Oct. 9-16

The United Fund Drive started at BJC on Monday, October 9, and ends Monday, October 16. Mr. James R. Wolfe was appointed by President Chaffee to act as the 1961-62 drive chairman.

Mrs. Edith Brisgil will be in charge of the office staff section, Mr. Charlie Brown in charge of the custodial staff section, Miss Mildred Cecil in charge of the Student Union staff section and Beverly Ramsey in charge of the BJC student section.

The goal for the community is $245,000, and everyone at BJC is urged to do his part in making the community drive a success.

'Miss Wool' Contest Open To BJC Girls

Each year the women's auxiliary of the Idaho Wool Growers Association select a young college girl to represent the Idaho wool industry as "Miss Wool." The girl must have completed at least one year of college between the ages of 18 and 25. She must wear a size 10 garment, be between the height of 5'6" to 5'8" and in good health. While in San Angelo, Texas, where the national contest will be held, the Idaho girl selected will have to model her garment before the judges, give a short talk on wool and present a talent on stage during the pageant.

If any girl is interested, she can get an entry blank in the dean of women's office.

Those girls interested and qualified will be interviewed by Mrs. Roy M. Laird, the last week of October. Her phone number is 2-7147, Boise.

OUR NEED FOR MORE ROOM . . .

A week from today residents of Boise will be heading for the polls to vote for or against the Boise Junior College proposed bond issue. This civic activity concerns you and me . . . It concerns every student and every faculty member here at BJC.

The need for a new classroom-library building and a new vocational classroom building is only too obvious to us as we attend our classes five days a week. Classrooms are filled to capacity. The solution to the problem is not hard to formulate. BJC is bulging at the seams and its crowded hallways are crying for more classrooms and facilities.

One of the most important facilities of any college, is its library. At the present our library has the seating capacity for 100 students. Did you know that national library standards require seating capacity for 25½ of the student body? Three hundred chairs short! This is no small problem to be ignored. We also lack shelving space for books. Right now, there are several thousand, much needed volumes being stored in a temporary building. The college library is considered the nucleus of academic activity. How is BJC expected to fulfill its purpose under such a handicap?

Did you realize that the vocational and technical departments of BJC actually have waiting lists? Graduates of these departments are "snapped up" upon completion of the courses, verifying the quality of students these departments produce. But is it fair to our community to deny the same education to would-be-students for lack of space? It is only fair that the needs of our community be met?

Seven years ago the last bond issue was passed for the gymnasium and science building. During this short period of time, BJC's enrollment has increased from 854 students to 1572 students. An increase of 84%! The night classes have made an incredible increase of 167%—from 932 students in 1954, to 2,493 students in 1961!

Need we ask why these new buildings are necessary?

True, the Boise Junior College district is a comparatively small area. In order to finance this $800,000 20-year bond issue, three-fourths of a mill will be needed beginning the 1962-63 school year. Due to the increased college enrollments all over our nation, schools are beginning to demand higher requirements for admission. Scholastic standard and tuition rates are being raised. Such facilities will insure the youth of our community of their future education opportunities.

Residents of Boise must loom with an eye to the future when considering the bond issue. BJC will continue to grow as children in Boise are being promoted from grade school to junior high—from junior high to high school—and from high school graduation to college.

People of Boise should be proud to have such a fine institution, and they should prepare to meet the growing demands being made of it. — J. H.

Just Browsin' . . .

There are over 27,000 volumes in the BJC library. Magazines total 220, 112 of which are bound.

In alphabetical categorizing, Mc is spelled Mac, and post office comes before posting.

Microfilm is proving invaluable for preservation of periodical literature. Titles are found in the periodical index and machine instructions may be obtained at the circulation desk.

Records and tape recordings are also on file at the library. Machines are available in the downstairs stack room.

Fines of 25c for the first hour and 5c for additional hours are charged against reserve books to encourage their prompt return.

Morrison Hall Entertains

Morrison hall invited off-campus girls to attend an informal "Getting to Know You" party on October 8 at 3:00 p.m. Entertainment was provided by the talent of Morrison hall and refreshments were served.

Morrison Hall News

Election day at Morrison hall was held on Tuesday, October 3. The new officers elected for the remaining school year consist of Marilyn Woolard, vice-president; Phyllis Yearsly, secretary; Judy McNeilly, treasurer, and Mary Frahm, social chairman. These girls will assist Gay Lynn Smith, president, who was elected last spring.

The dorm has three girls running for Homecoming Queen. They are Andriette Garbrecht, sponsored by Morrison hall; Mary Lynn Benham, sponsored by Driscoll hall, and Pam Harp, sponsored by Pi Sigma Sigma.

A little known but effective piece of legislation passed as part of the National Bankruptcy Act of 1938 has helped thousands to stay out of bankruptcy, reports the June Reader's Digest. Known as the Wage Earners' Plan, the system brings debtors under court protection, allows them to pay off their debts in stipulated interest-free amounts without threat of wage garnishments or repossession of property.

Letter From BJC's Student Executives

I think most of you will agree that the school year has started in fine style. The freshmen are now in the groove and the rest of us are back in the swing trying to pick up where we left off last year.

The dances the Union night committee has given us have been well received. IK's and Pi Sigs have their pledge classes in tow and it will be interesting to watch them go through the rounds of becoming members. The freshman class has elected some top students to serve on the student council. It will be interesting to see if we and you, the student body, can keep the year going at the pace it is now.

For the first time in BJC student administration history, the student executive board has been granted an office. It is room number 102 and is located in the temporary building next to the library. Regular office hours will be observed. These will be posted soon on the door. We urge anyone having an idea, suggestion, or gripe to feel free to confer with us. After all, we are your elected representatives and are here to do anything in our power to better Boise Junior College.

Howdy doody, BJC'ers!

Rumor is that the BJC Roundup editor (alias The Notorious Red-Head) has never absolutely never been to one class on time since this year began. Realizing the attitude of professors towards tardy students, Miss Editor purposely missed the morning break, remained in the Ad building so that she could be punctual for her math class. But wait, you guessed it, there seems to be someone shedding tears of embarrassment and shame as she sinks into math five minutes late! (Oh, by the way, Miss Editor, sorry my column is late but I'm sure that YOU'LL understand!)

It seems that the IK's are having a time getting on their feet this year. During officer initiation, Duke Jim McFarland was preparing (with a paddle) to initiate a new officer. The duke backed up, took a running start towards the bent over IK and "ker-plop!" Mr. McFarland was very awkwardly sprawled on the floor in front of all the members and the IK dutchess.

The new officer missed a swat, the members got a laugh, and the duke got his pride hurt (among other things).

Please remember that this column is written with a humorous (?) pen and all incidents that resemble any past happenings are purely non-accidental.

Drama Activities Begin Auditions

Auditions for 1961-62 all-school dramatics and entertainment activities were held from 9:00 to 1:00 o'clock Friday morning in TI-A. Auditions were for three all-school plays and the variety show.

More details will be given in the next issue.

MR. LOUIS ZELLERS

Boise Junior College has a new instructor in the business department. Mr. Louis E. Zellers received his B.S. degree at Purdue University and his Master's at the University of Indiana. He also has attended a summer session at the University of Colorado.

In the summer of 1960 Mr. Zellers toured Western Europe with a close friend. They traveled to many of the countries outside the Iron Curtain. His personal comment was, "Europe is quite intriguing, but there is nothing quite like the U.S."

Rochester, Indiana, a community of 5,000, is Mr. Zellers' town.

Mr. Zellers is looking forward to the winter activities he is getting underway soon at BJC and in other winter sports throughout the area. As a baseball fan, Mr. Zellers saw games last summer after attending a summer session at the University of Colorado. He is in Chicago after the season spent the remainder of the summer there. This is where he attended the ball games.

Recently, Mr. Zellers was to sponsor the Pi Sigma Alpha service, campus organization.

Pi Sigs To Sponsor Dance

Already this year BJC has seen some real stompin' at the Union night dances. Pi Sigma Sigma would like to contribute to school spirit and is doing so in sponsoring a dance following the game with Weber this Saturday, the 14th.

In order to pay a live band, the Tempests, there will be a 50c admission charge in addition to activity cards. Dates of students will be admitted for 50c alone. School clothes will be in order.

Those of you who attended the dance following the game with El Camino know that there was a good turnout and that everyone had a good time. In order to accommodate an expected large crowd, the dance will be held downstairs in the SUB.

First French Club Meeting To Be Held Wednesday

Members of the French classes are invited to attend the first French club meeting which will be held Wednesday, October 11, at 7:30 p.m. at 1519 Lincoln, with Everett Reagan as host.

Bingo, played in French, will be included in the evening's entertainment, along with election of officers for the coming year.

She was a bulwark of strength as my secretary, and we are so happy that now that she has retired she has seen fit to stay with the college on a part-time basis and continue to handle the processing of student loans. The student and the college are both the gainers in her continued service in the student loan niche. I salute Mrs. Fenton for her dedicated service to Boise Junior College."

To clarify a few points that appeared in a previous issue of The Roundup, Mrs. Fenton served as secretary and research assistant to Dr. F. J. Kelly, former president of University of Idaho; in his capacity of chairman of one of the principal committees of the first White House conference on child health and protection.

She attended Boise High, received her B.A. from Stanford University and her M.S.(ed.) from the University of Idaho.

A report in the June Reader's Digest should make butchers happy. It reveals that Americans are eating more meat than ever before in history. Each of us consumed 201 pounds of meat last year — against 169 pounds in 1950. Poultry is the high-flying leader in these statistics. Last year we ate five billion pounds of chicken, up 50 percent over 1950.

Feature Player Mike Kanehe

The ROUNDUP feature player this week is Milton Kanehe, 230-pound tackle for the Broncos. Milt is a graduate of Punahou Academy, Honolulu, Hawaii. In asking Milt about his interests he mentioned swimming and body surfing as among his favorite pastimes on the islands. Milt is anxious to get back and see Hawaii again as it has been a little over a year since he was there last.

Milt is majoring in criminology and plans to go into law enforcement when he finishes college. Woe be the chap who crosses Mr. Kanehe's path.

In talking football Milt said that the hardest game since he's been at BJC was last year's questionable affair with Santa Monica. Looking over the season so far Milt attributes the success to the team as a whole, playing as a team in a well organized manner. Milt is looking forward to the games with Weber, Everett and New Mexico as real contests.

Broncos Take Fourth Straight Win With 50-19 Victory Over Carbon

A reverse early in the first quarter broke Marsh Stevens' loss for a 35-yard romp to paydirt and the Broncos' first touchdown in their game with Carbon at Price, Utah. Stevens was running in place of Frank Kana, who injured his ankle in the game at Bremerton. Also missing from the Bronco lineup was regular starting fullback Nick Yorges.

Stevens again found running room for a 56-yard total. Dennis Ingraham took the pigskin over the line from about the Carbon 30-yard mark for BJC's second tally in the first quarter. Meyers converted both tiffles. End Bernard Bisho added two points to the total when he caught a Carbon kicker in the end zone. First quarter score: BJC 16, Carbon 0.

Curtis Keith winged a pass to Rod Leslie for a 40-yard touchdown play in the second quarter. Bill Smith, playing in place of Yorges, smashed over from the two-yard mark for the third Bronco score.

Carbon's quarterback, Paul Blazer, spearheaded a drive and finally carried across the goal line from five yards out for their first TD.

In the final moments of the half Ingraham scored on a 12-yard carry and gave the Broncos a 37-6 edge at halftime.

The Broncos scored quickly at the opening of the second half. Keith scoring from about the six-yard line. Meyers missed the PAT attempt. It was Meyer's first miss in some 17 kicks under game conditions. This didn't seem to phase Francis, however, as he continued booting the pigskin over the fence and out of the stadium.

On a play that covered some 40 yards, Carbon's Blazer passed to his end for the second touchdown for the Utah team.

The fourth quarter saw the Broncos' Dennis Ludwig break loose on a 45-yard run for the last Boise touchdown of the day. Carbon came back with another score, their tremendous quarter-back Blazer going six yards to the goal line on a roll-out.

SPORTS NOTES

The Broncos meet Weber College next week at Bronco Stadium. The boys from Boise haven't dropped a game to Weber since 1947. The Weber team will more than likely be up for this game as the Broncos just edged them last year in a 26-21 contest. Mr. B.
